

Olsoe/Johnson Sail
August 15-22
(Note, the last part of this sail was repositioning Kia Ora back to Harbor Island with overnight at Oak Bay)

Soundings in Fathoms

Leaving Anacortes for Sucia

(Even a Gray NW Day Can Be Beautiful)

Seals Near the Sisters

Mark and Diane with De Havilland Beaver
(Pilot can be seen sitting on a rock in the background.)

Captain Erin Swansen flies for Kenmore Air in the summer and flies skiers into Colorado resorts in the winter. She had dropped a family off for a picnic on the beach and had just returned to pick them up. She said, “The pay isn’t much but you are surrounded by all this...indicating Sucia’s Echo Bay.”

Sucia's Shallow Bay

Rock Formation in Shallow Bay

Echo Bay

Hiking the North Side of Echo Bay

Madrona Trees are Common on Sucia

Kia Ora on a Mooring Ball in Echo Bay

Ewing Cove

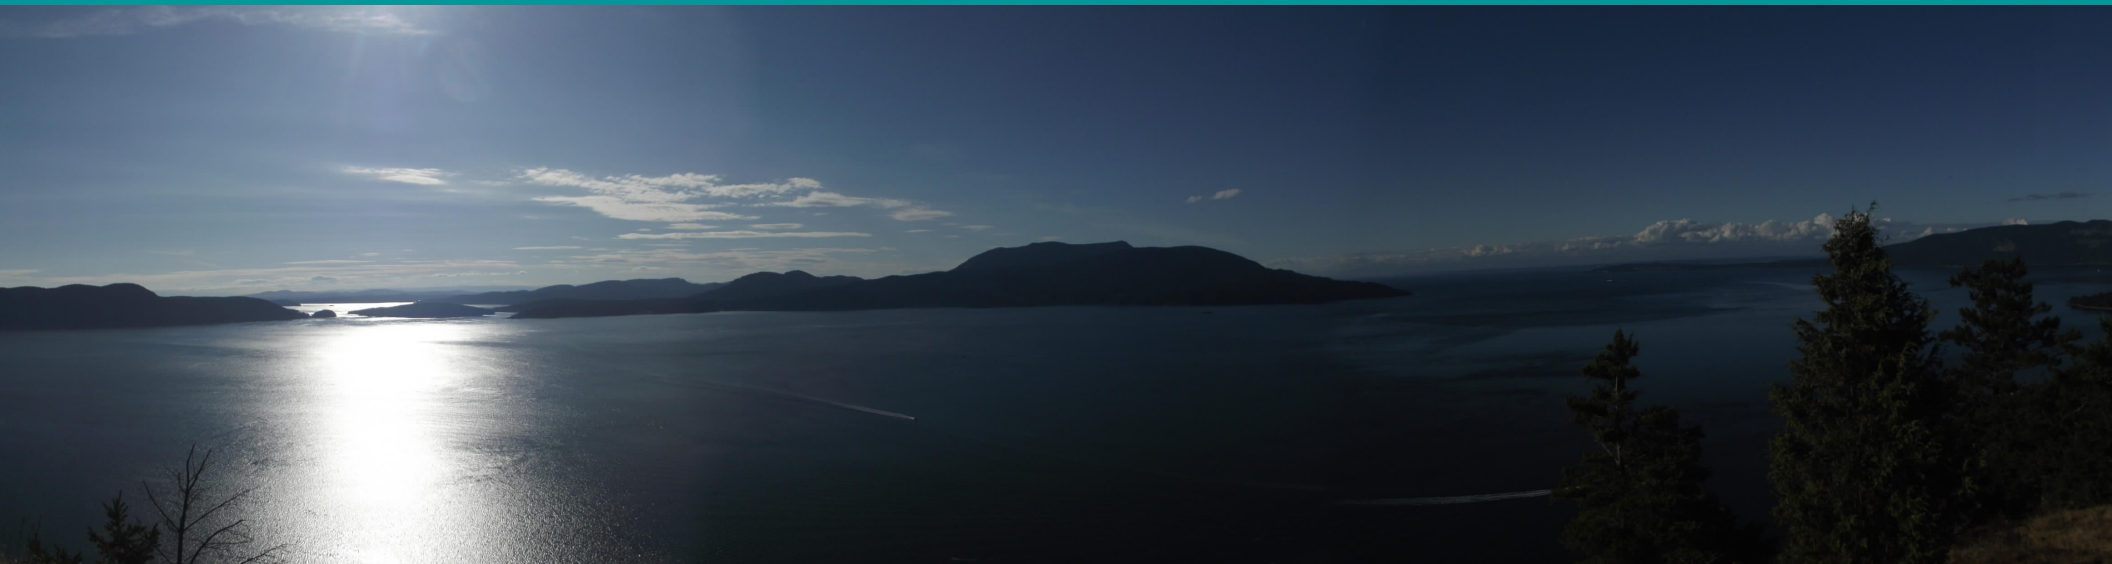

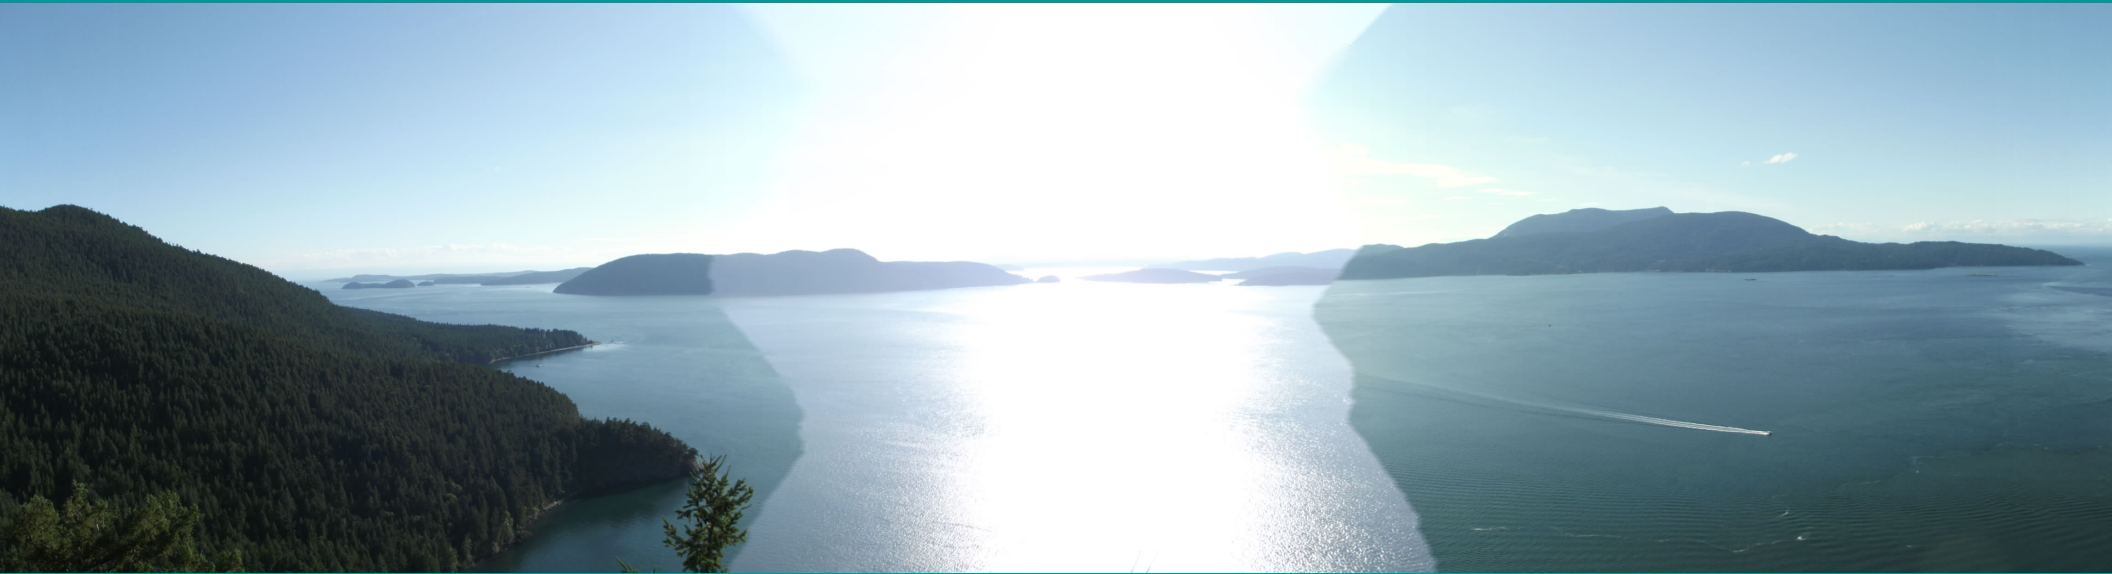

Beautiful Views Around Every Corner

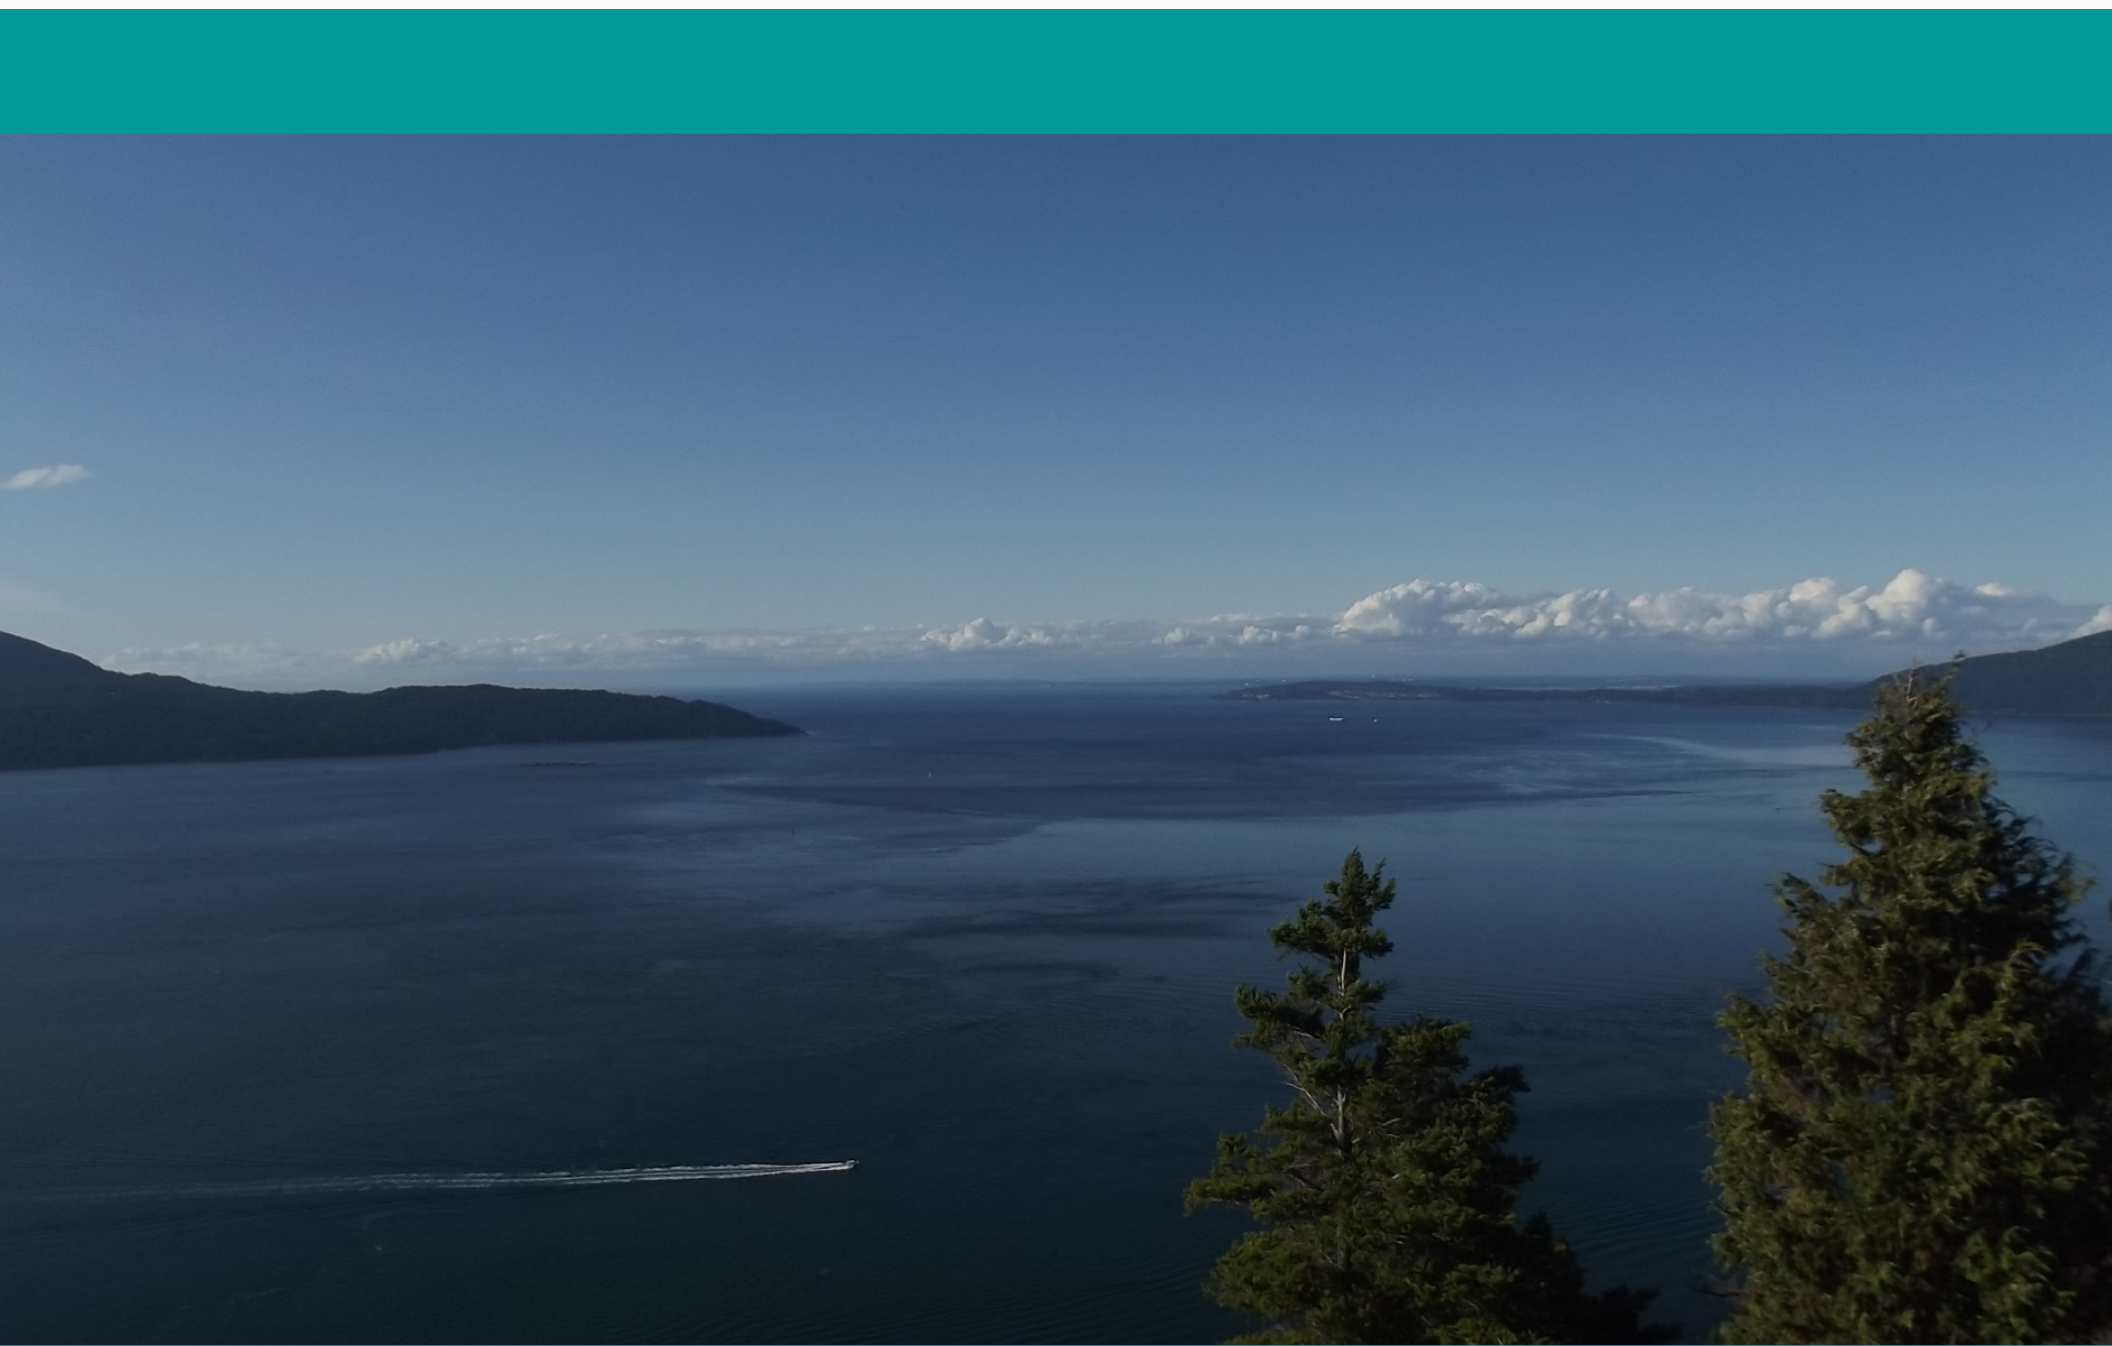

Cypress Island - Kia Ora (Rear) at Pelican Beach

1.5 Mile, 770' Vertical Hike to Eagle Cliff

Terrific 360° Views

Rosario Strait Foreground and Strait of Georgia to the North

Mark and Diane on Eagle Cliff

Peavine Pass & Obstruction Island

Picking up Alice at Anacortes we then enjoyed Friday Harbor

Friday Harbor

Single Person Custom Trimaran with Wheels!

From the Crab House Restaurant in Friday Harbor

Mark and Diane

Rare Event – Larry and Alice on the Boat Together

Using the Dinghy at Spencer Spit

At Spencer Spit – Tide's Out

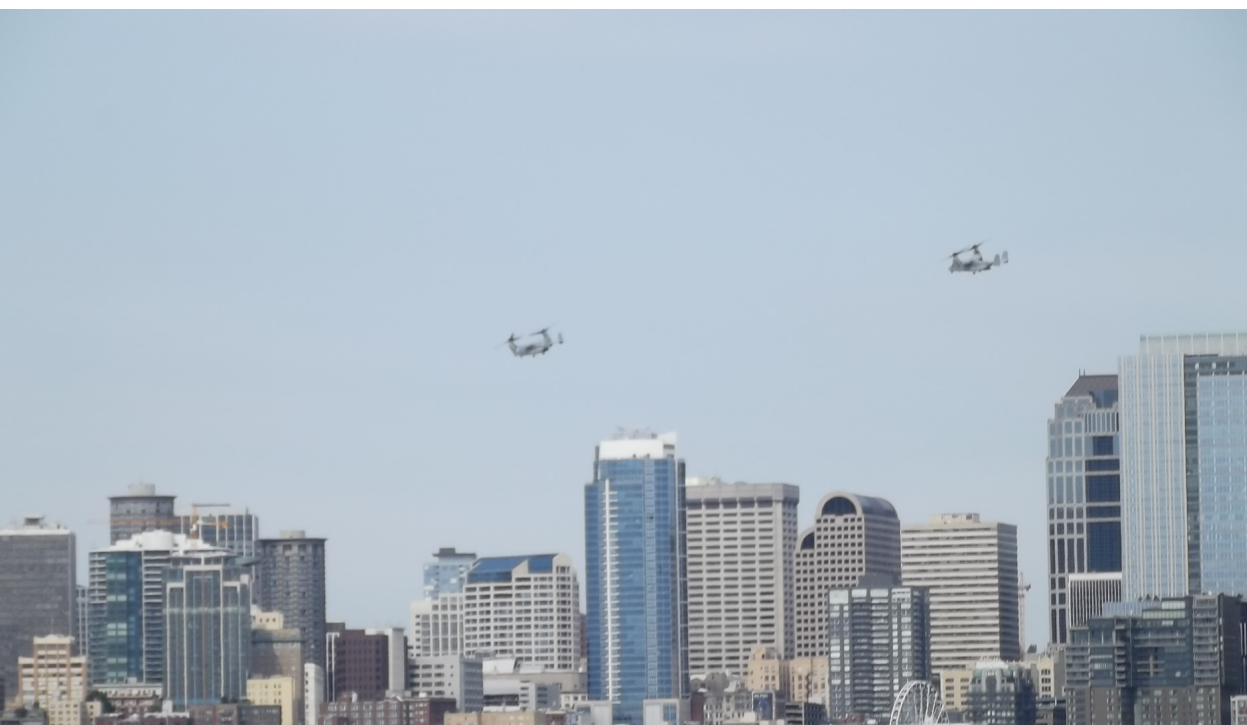

At Spencer Spit

Drinks and Supper with Don & Nancy at Spencer Spit
(Friends from Puget Sound Cruising Club with their boat La Gitana)

Rare, Glassy Strait of Jaun De Fuca on Return Trip₂₈

V-22 Osprey Fly-by Greet Me Back to Seattle

http://home.comcast.net/~lrschultz/recent_events/V22.AVI